THE WEEK IN EDMONTON

Prorogation of the eighth session of the eighth legislature came at 10:40 p. m. on Monday, April 3, when His Honor Lieutenant Governor J. C. Bowen closed regular proceedings in traditional manner. With the bills to which he had already given Royal Assent, His Honor now assented to the remainder, which brought the total to 102.

The session opened Thursday February 9, and it lasted just short of eight weeks. The House sat for 37 working days in the House, and in all, 105 bills were introduced. Three bills each introduced by private members, were killed in committee. They were the Hairdressers bill, the Dental Mechanics bill, and the bill to Amend and Consolidate the Dental Act.

The latter drew some stormy comments on Monday and the debate was so vigorous at times that prorogation seemed about to be held off for another day. Chief objector was J. H. Unwin, Edson who attacked a number of clauses as being undemocratic. Just before recess he moved that the chairman leave the chair, which would have meant the virtual killing of the bill at that stage. He was not successful that time, but later the chairman was instructed to do just that, and the bill died.

A poignant note was struck early in Monday's proceedings when Premier Aberhart and leaders of the Opposition voiced regret at the death of William E. Hayes, Social Credit member for Stoney Plain and a member of the Social Credit Board. Rank and file members followed, and all were unanimous in their expressions of sorrow at the passing of an extremely likeably and kindly public servant.

Mr. D. M. Duggan, leader of the conservative party, said that in such a time all party affiliations were forgotten. He added that no matter how one disagreed with the beliefs of Mr. Hayes, it was impossible to become an enemy. He was a gentleman, always. Mr. E. L. Gray spoke in similar vein, and he was followed by N. B. James, Acadia, and S. A. Berg, Alexandra, who said he had lost one of the best pals he ever had. G. L. MacLachlan, Chairman of the Social Credit Board, also spoke highly of his colleague. "His memory inspires us to press on,"

At the past session caucus among Social Credit members they decided to accept 50 per cent of their Sessional Indemnities in Treasury Vouchets. This will mean an excess of $50,000 circulating in that

Cost Of Government

Probably very few people who join in the popular clamour for government expenditure for relief, for public and social services, for subsidies and for numerous other concessions, too often with the idea of benefiting themselves beyond actual needs to gain something for their community realize the expense they are saddling upon themselves and upon their children.

If they did, it is probable that many of the demands which are made upon the federal, provincial and municipal governments would be considerably curtailed and some of them would not be made at all. The people themselves would be more vigilant in their efforts to prevent relief racketeering such as was recently revealed in criminal court proceedings in one of the municipalities in Saskatchewan and the public conscience would result in curtailment of some of the demands which are constantly being made for services, favors and concessions which the country is unable to afford at the present time.

Governments are not altogether to blame if they yield to constant and enormous pressure which is constantly being brought to bear upon them for unnecessary expenditures or for services for which the means are not forthcoming without pledging the country, the province or the municipality to indebtedness beyond ability to repay.

It is the people themselves who thoughtlessly make demands without counting the cost and who regard the governments as a widow's cruse of oil who are culpable, and until they fully realize what the cost of government is to them as individuals, the avalanche of demands for more services of one kind and another is not likely to abate.

Unappreciated Costs

One of the difficulties in bringing home to the public consciousness the burden which the people must carry as a result of these demands for multiple government and increasing services is the fact that much of the taxation imposed to pay for it is the indirect form, what might appropriately be termed hidden taxes.

The average man or woman who goes into a store to spend a dime or a dollar is not conscious, or at the best only vaguely aware, of the fact that a percentage of the dime or that dollar goes towards the cost of government and government services. A portion of the dime or the dollar goes to the federal government, sometimes another slice of it goes to the provincial government and in some cases all three governments take a share of that dime or that dollar.

Even those who have a dim conception that when they are purchasing commodities and services they are contributing towards the cost of one or more governments have not the faintest idea of what proportion of the money they are spending goes for that purpose. If they did, it is more than probable that the governments would not be subjected to this continual bombardment for more and more expenditure.

As already intimated it is difficult for people to appreciate and realize the cost of government and government services largely for the reasons mentioned, but one authority, Capt. W. C. C. Innes, managing director of the Taxpayers' Association of Canada, in a recent article in the Labour Review declared that "our contributions by indirect taxation are about two-thirds of the total taxes collected."

The same author states that the public debt is now approximately eight billion dollars of which $900,000,000 has been spent on relief in various forms with prospects that it will reach a total of one billion dollars this summer. The annual interest charge on this big debt, he states is $200,000,000 which divided equally among the eleven million people inhabiting the country means an average yearly charge of $28 per person. Very properly, of course, the burden is not equally divided, for those with larger incomes contribute a larger share than those with smaller incomes on the basis of one of the fundamental principles of taxation, "ability to pay."

Without An Asset

Of the many problems facing the country and which have been responsible for building up a heavy debt, Capt. Innes rightly regards the unemployment problem as the most serious, not only because of the large sums which have been spent on direct relief without any return for the expenditure in the form of assets, but because of the effect of this system of aid upon the morale of the recipients.

Reference has already been made to the beneficial effect of direct relief as exemplified in recent court actions and there is no question but that much of the cause for complaint against this type of aid would disappear if a policy of requiring some return in the form of work for the money spent by all the governments concerned in the administration of relief were adopted.

As Capt. Innes appropriately comments in the concluding paragraph of his article: "There is a growing tendency to rely on the governments for this, that and the other thing, not realizing that we, the people, are the government, and in the long run we pay in full for our unthinking selfishness and folly."

Helped By Office Staff

Man Able To Hold Job Because Colleagues Were Kind

Here is a story to match the one we had a while ago about members of a Toronto office staff clubbing together to pay for plastic surgery to the scarred face of a fellow-employee. A young chap in another local office became deaf through mastoiditis caused by diving. The handicap was affecting his work and blighting his life generally. Quietly his colleagues chipped in and bought a hearing instrument for him—one of those wonderful, inconspicuous things that work by bone conduction of sound, or something. He could never have afforded it himself, since he is the main support of his family. The thoughtfulness of his workday associates has made things worth while for him again, and gone is the haunting fear that deafness would handicap his future.—Toronto Telegram.

Map Changes

British Map Makers Losing A Lot Of Money These Days

Adolf Hitler and other European "map changers" are costing Britain's five big map making concerns a total of about $52,000 a month, it was said recently.

The five concerns alone have destroyed or re-printed more than 1,000,000 maps in the last four years. Some of the companies were just issuing new maps of Asia and Ethiopia when the Czech crisis developed. They stopped the presses in order to get the European changes also.

A one year supply is usually kept in stock. The Czech changes necessitated alterations on more than 250,000 maps, including the names of many towns that became German. The only consolation for the companies is that the public now is more "map conscious" and sales are up.

Visitors On Lonely Isle

Women visitors were lauded recently at Tristan da Cunha, perhaps for the first time in history. Believed to be the world's loneliest settled isle, this south Atlantic spot was visited recently by passengers of a liner and gifts left with the 130 inhabitants. Subsisting on meagre produce of a barren rocky island, the dwellers refuse to leave and are not bothered about a radio set that never works.

No Commercial Value

But Islands Taken Over By Japan Are Good Air Bases

The government at Tokyo has notified France that Japan was assuming jurisdiction over the Spratly islands in the China sea—a strategic coral group midway between French Indo-China and British North Borneo. France occupied the islands in 1933. The group of seven islands have an area of 247 acres but are without great commercial value. However they surround lagoons which could afford harbor facilities for seaplanes, submarines and small naval craft.

Occupation of the islands by France in 1933 was the first claim to ownership since their discovery in 1867.

SELECTED RECIPES

BUTTER CAKE

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter or other shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg, unbeaten
3/4 cup milk
1 teaspoon vanilla

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat very thoroughly. Add flour, alternately with milk, a small amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 8-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 25 minutes, or until done.

BANANA GINGER CREAM CAKE

Use recipe for Butter Cake. Bake in greased pan, 325-350 degrees in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 50 minutes, or until done. Split cake in half to make two layers. For filling, whip 1 cup cream and fold in 2 tablespoons chopped candied ginger. Spread bottom layer of cake with about half of whipped cream; cover with banana slices. Adjust top layer, garnish with remaining cream, and garnish with border of banana slices. Takes two to three bananas.

JELLY TIER CAKES

Use recipe for Butter Cake. Bake in greased cup-cake pans in moderate oven (375 degrees F.) 20 minutes, or until done. Cut each cake crosswise, to make three layers. Beat 1 cup last jelly with fork until of right consistency. Spread bottom layer with two layers and on top of cakes. Whip 1 cup cream and spread on sides of cakes. Makes 2 dozen cakes.

Is Your Back Sore?

If your back is sore and you must get up several times at night, you will find that Dr. Pierce's Ankle Tablets are very beneficial. Mrs. Emily Wright, 478 Henry St., Woodstock, Ont., says: "My little girl called me up several times at night, complaining of pain developed through my back. I could scarcely take my arms about my head and could hardly lie in bed. I was so miserable that I took Dr. Pierce's Ankle and I was completely relieved of every ache and pain so that I fell right again. I have had no such trouble since." Try Dr. Pierce's Ankle Tablets at your drug store.

The Naval Race

United States To Build World's Largest Battleships

The President has exercised the right given to him by the Naval Expansion Act of 1938 and has given the navy authority to proceed with the construction of two 45,000-ton battleships.

Behind the debate over the Naval Expansion Act lay an Italian newspaper story to the effect that Japan had laid down two 42,000-ton battleships.

That story, printed in the Fall of 1937, has not been confirmed from Japanese sources, but how successful the Japanese are in guarding the details of their naval building program may be judged from the following: In a recent compilation of information relating to the navies of the principal powers, prepared by the British First Lord of the Admiralty, under Japan, battleships, building and projected, is found the terse entry, "Not Known."

Presumably the President and his naval advisers have discovered more evidence than the Italian newspaper article of 1937 affords that Japan or some other Power is building battleships larger than 35,000 tons.

What the 45,000-ton battleship means to national defence the layman perhaps is not qualified to say, though he may be inclined to think that it approaches, if it does not touch, the policy of putting all your eggs in one basket. Since the cost of naval construction increases disproportionately to the increase of tonnage battleships of 45,000 tons may be expected to cost in excess of $100,000,000 apiece.

So far as available information goes, the two battleships authorized by the President would be the world's largest, exceeding by almost 3,000 tons the British battle cruiser Hood and by 10,000 tons the battleships which the French and British have under construction.—New York Sun.

Natural Gas Dynamite

New Powerful High Explosive Is Announced By American Chemical Society

Natural gas dynamite, a new, cheap, powerful high explosive, was announced by the American Chemical Society.

The discovery means, it was stated, limitless quantities of high explosives can be made from air, natural gas and steam alone.

A new chemical synthesis, discovered at Purdue University, extracts from natural gas two new explosives, each as destructive as nitroglycerine, the high of all detonating explosives.

The synthesis was reported by Professor Henry B. Hass, head of the chemistry department, Purdue University.

One of the new destroyers is made from methane, common "fire-damp" or marsh gas, and abundant in natural gas. The other is from ethane, a colorless, odorless gas also found in natural gas.

Each condenses to a solid when treated with formaldehyde. Nitrogen is then added. This makes a mixture which can substitute for nitroglycerine.

Germany Buys Cotton

Germany has purchased on a barter basis the entire cotton crop of Nicaragua and also large quantities of coffee, cottonseed oil, rubber, hides, deerskins and cabinet woods of all classes. Large German tramp ships are now loading at Corinto, Nicaragua, will receive in return barbed wire, nails, Diesel trucks, automobiles, hardware and pharmaceutical products. Producers would prefer to sell for cash, but other countries cannot purchase all Nicaragua's export products.

Age Limit Ruled

The London Daily Mail says men are not too old at 40 in the Navy. The Admiralty has decided, as a temporary measure, that candidates for the warrant rank of Gunner (E)—torpedo branch—shall be eligible for promotion up to the age of 40, instead of 35 as now. Reason: A shortage of petty officers who wish to become warrant officers.

Must Expect A Prisoner

The London Times says Sark Parliament, the smallest in the world, has decided to repair the roof of its prison, which has housed only three prisoners in a hundred years. Once a servant girl being shut in the little cell for stealing was nervous at being left alone, so the door was left wide open that she might be cheered up by seeing the passers-by.

The Zoological Survey of India reports that snails—which were completely starved—can live on reserves of food in their tissues for about four months.

Not Normal Music

Jazz Result Of Cultivated Musical Depravity States Authority

There has somehow been circulated the idea that jazz is the normal music of the common people. On the contrary, it is highly artificial, the result of a cultivated musical depravity, says Dr. James Francis Cook, in the Etude. A few years ago, an explorer took a field-radio on an expedition to the jungles of the Orinoco River. The white men almost invariably demanded jazz; the Indians, who had never been out of the jungles, who had never heard any white man's music, went into raptures over grand opera and symphony concerts. And when Kentucky mountaineers travel 20 to 30 miles by wagon and by mule-back just to hear a program at a "listening broadcast station," they show a curious disdain for jazz. They are instantly delighted by the better music and the symphonic programs, but hold their ears when the noise of the Harlem beatniks is turned on. Their natural taste has never been perverted.

Lag In Research

Were Cleverly Hidden

Woman Smuggles Rings Out Of Czech-Slovakia In Bologna

An aged Czech-Slovak woman sped by train from Halifax to a new home in western Canada with two cherished rings she had smuggled past German officials in a roll of bologna. The meat remained in Halifax.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Friday afternoon, March 24th, in All Saints' Anglican church, Oyen, when Ewald Mildred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Lee of Lacombe became the bride of Mr. Howard James Balaam.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. R. J. Rainbow of Oyen, and the bride was given in marriage by her father. The bridesmaid was Miss Eloise Villock and Mr. Fred Hatch attended the groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Lily Bishop.

The bride's costume was of rose crepe and her hat of roseberry straw. She carried a bouquet of tulips and carnations.

The bridesmaid wore a frock of maize sheer, a maize hat and carried a bouquet.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served to immediate friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Munroe.
